

To Whom It May Concern:

I'm writing to request a copy for review of "Title Here" (ISBN-10: #####) by Author. I have read the brief summaries of the book and would like to review it on my website: yourwebsite.com. I think it would be a good fit for my readership.

Below is a paragraph I usually include in my requests. Write a brief summary about your website and also include links to previous reviews if you have done them:

Macheesmo.com is a food and cooking website that features recipes and posts almost daily. It is written and managed by me. On Sundays, I like to provide thorough reviews of cookbooks, both new and old for my readers. So far the reviews have been very well received.

Below are two examples of reviews I have written for other books:

The Flavor Bible <http://www.macheesmo.com/u/11>

Jamie At Home <http://www.macheesmo.com/u/18>

If you would like to send a copy of the book for review, please send it to:

If you include some publisher contact information I will of course alert you when I have written the review.

Best,

Nick
